

JUPITER TRINE NATAL NEPTUNE

When Transiting Jupiter makes a Trine to Natal Neptune, depending on our state of awareness, it can indicate a time when we awaken to a deeper consciousness of the psychic and mystical realms. This is particularly true if we have been on this road already and are now ready to move into the next stage of our evolutionary awareness.

For those relatively new to the “Super Natural”, it is important to remember that “natural” is the key word. It is something that is very normal but not talked about much. Under this influence, we begin to open doors that might otherwise have been closed prior to this time in our lives. All levels of enlightenment through meditation, psychic awareness groups and any form of teaching that is available is highly recommended and should be favored under the influence of this aspect.

Jupiter expands on whatever it touches and adds growth and higher teachings. For those experiencing this Trine, you are ready for things to be taken to a new level of awareness. It is time to advance to what you deem significant in your life, even if you are currently in a place where psychic awareness hasn't been accomplished yet. This aspect will likely open the door a little more for you. Being open to these energies is necessary, however.

Neptune, depending on its house location in the Natal Chart and the house location it is transiting, now can also indicate musical abilities, unique ideologies that are not commonly found in general, insight and imagination above what could be considered the norm, etc.

For example, the first house is very personal and influences relationships of significance. The second house deals with finances and security and affects shared resources. The third is related to writing, teaching and communication and has to do with foreign travel, higher learning such as continued education. The fourth house is about the home and family and has an impact on our goals and occupation. The fifth has to do with our creativity and perhaps children, along with friendship, groups and organizations somehow connected with humanity on some level. Finally, our last example, the sixth house related to our working environment, health in general and is also connected with the twelfth house which has to do with psychic awareness and is known as the dustbin of the Zodiac. This suggests issues that we may not want to deal with because they are challenging on some level.

As you can see the houses involved are very significant.

Transiting Jupiter trine Natal Neptune will expand, enhance and create an easy flow focusing on creativity, mysticism, spirituality, psychic awareness, etc.
